

WEB SEMINAR

For the 2018 tax year, California expanded an important state program to the roughly three million transition-age youth in California, age 18 to 24. When they file their 2018 income taxes, they may be eligible for the California Earned Income Tax (CaEITC), regardless of whether or not they have a child. Prior to the policy change, an individual aged 18 to 24 was not eligible for the CA EITC unless they were a parent.

Please join John Burton Advocates for Youth for a web seminar on Wednesday, January 23rd from 10:00 to 11:30 a.m. to discuss this expansion and to address commonly asked questions transition-age youth may have about how to access this important benefit.
