

WEB SEMINAR

Each year, the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development directs over $500 million to California to address homelessness via 43 local Continuums of Care (CoCs). CoCs coordinate local providers working to combat homelessness, yet many people do not know how to access these services.

Please join John Burton Advocates for Youth for a web seminar providing this important information, targeting representatives from post-secondary education and child welfare communities, both of whom serve individuals struggling with homelessness. Topics will include:

- What is a CoC and how does it work?
- What housing resources are available from the local Homeless Response System for youth?
- Why is it important to participate in the local CoC?

Representatives from the Los Angeles Homeless Services Authority and the San Francisco Department of Homelessness and Supportive Housing will present on best practice for connecting youth to homeless services.

Thursday, March 7
10:00 - 11:30 A.M.
