Students are allowed to bring one guest to this event.

Everyone must register to attend the event.

Please register by April 24, 2019.

This event is intended to acknowledge and celebrate current and former foster youth who are working towards or have earned an Associate's degree, Associates degree for transfer, Bachelor's degree, Master's Degree or have completed a certificate program in the 2018/2019 school year. In addition to celebrating their success, we will be offering a buffet luncheon and ceremony where graduates will receive an award and a special gift from Senator John Burton in recognition of their incredible accomplishments.
